THE [Numb. 838.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, May 28, 1761.

LONDON, March 19.

HIS Majeſty's moſt gracious Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, on Thurſday the 19th Day of March, 1761.

My LORDS and GENTLEMEN,

I CANNOT put an End to this Seſſion, without declaring my entire Satisfaction in your Proceedings during the Courſe of it. The Zeal you have ſhewn for the Honour of my Crown, as well as for my true Intereſt, and that of your Country, which are ever the ſame, is the cleareſt Demonſtration of that Duty nd Affection to my Perſon and Government, of which you unanimouſly aſſured me at your firſt Meeting. Nothing ould ſo much add to the Pleaſure which theſe Conſiderations ord me, as that I am now able to acquaint you with the eat Progreſs made of late by the Combined Army in Gerany, under the Command of Prince Ferdinand of Brunſick. I formerly told you, That the Nature of the War, thoſe Parts, had kept the Campaign there ſtill depending; d it now appears, to the Surprize of my Enemies, that e ſuperior Ability, and indefatigable Activity of my Geral, and the Spirit and Ardour of my Officers and Troops, ve greatly profited of this Perſeverance, notwithſtanding the Difficulties ariſing from the Seaſon.

By your Aſſiſtance, I have taken the beſt Care to recruit at Army in an effectual Manner; and have made ſuch a diſpoſition of my Fleet, for next Summer, as may moſt vantageouſly defend my Kingdoms; protect the Commerce my Subjects; maintain and extend our Poſſeſſions and cquiſitions; and annoy the Enemy.

As in all my Meaſures I have nothing in View but the ecurity and Felicity of my Dominions, the Support of my llies, and the reſtoring of the public Tranquility, I truſt the Divine Providence, to give a happy Iſſue to our farther perations.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I cannot ſufficiently thank you for your Unanimity and diſpatch, in providing for the Expences of my Civil Government, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown: And think myſelf as much obliged to you, for the prudent Uſe, which, in framing that Proviſion, you have made of my conſent to leave my own Hereditary Revenues to ſuch Diſpoſition of Parliament, as might beſt conduce to the Utility nd Satisfaction of the Public, as for what more immediately oncerns myſelf.

In making my Acknowledgments for the large and extenve Supplies which you have granted me this Seſſion, I am t a Loſs whether moſt to applaud your Chearfulneſs in givg, or your Wiſdom in proportioning them to the extraordinary Occaſions of the Public, notwithſtanding thoſe uncommon Burthens, which I heartily regret. No Care ſhall e wanting, on my Part, to ſee them duly applied to the ational Ends for which you intended them.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Expiration of this Parliament now drawing very near, will forthwith give the neceſſary Orders for calling a new One: But I cannot take my Leave of you, without returning my Thanks for the many eminent Proofs you have given f your Fidelity and Affection to my Family and Government, and of your Zeal for this happy and excellent Conſtitution.

During this Parliament, the Flame of War was kindled by the injurious Encroachments and Uſurpations of our Enemies; and therefore it became juſt and neceſſary on our Part. In the Proſecution of it you have given ſuch Support to my Royal Grandfather and myſelf, and ſuch Aſſiſtance to our Allies, as have manifeſted your public ſpirited Concern for the Honour of the Nation; and the Maintenance of it's undoubted Rights and Poſſeſſions, and been attended with glorious Succeſſes, and great Acquiſitions, in various Parts of the World; particularly the entire Reduction of Canada, a Conqueſt of the utmoſt Importance to the Security of our Colonies in North-America, and to the Extenſion of the Commerce and Navigation of my Subjects.

May God Almighty grant Continuance to theſe Succeſſes! The Uſe which I propoſe to make of them is, to ſecure and promote the Welfare of my Kingdoms, and to carry on the War with Vigour, in order to procure to them the Bleſſings of Peace, on ſafe and honourable Conditions for me and my Allies; to which I have been always ready to hearken.

Firm in theſe Reſolutions, I do, with entire Confidence, rely on the good Diſpoſitions of my faithful Subjects in the Choice of their Repreſentatives; and I make no doubt but they will thereby demonſtrate the Sincerity of thoſe Aſſurances, which have been ſo cordially and univerſally given me, in the loyal, affectionate, and unanimous Addreſſes of my People.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Majeſty's Command, ſaid;

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is his Majeſty's Royal Will and Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the ſeventh Day of April next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the ſeventh Day of April next.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Grabenau, Feb. 25.

ON the 23d we marched to this Town; eight Battalions, under the Command of Major-General Schenke, were detached from Gen. Sporcken's Corps, to reinforce the Count of Buckeburg, and will arrive this Day at Fritzlar. We are in hourly Expectation of hearing, that the Trenches are opened before Caſſel, where there are ſeventeen Battalions, and the Volunteers of St. Victor, under the Command of the Count of Broglio.

When we arrived here, Lord Granby, with the Britiſh Guards, and Elliot's Regiment, was blockading Ziegenhayn, where M. de Luchmantle commands a Garriſon, ſaid to conſiſt of ſeven Hundred Men. Lieutenant General Oheimb, who is under Lord Granby's Orders, is advanced to Kirchain.

Yeſterday his Lordſhip was relieved by Major General Schluter, of the Heſſian Artillery, who is charged with the Blockade of Ziegenhayn, and Lord Granby marched to Kirchain. In the Caſtle of Amaneberg, which is within Cannon Shot of it, a Party of two Officers, and fifty Men, belonging to the Iriſh Brigade, were made Priſoners.

Our Heſſians puſhed Yeſterday to Homburg, where there was a Detachment of the Enemy, who retired on ſeeing them; and the Officer writes, that all Accounts agree in ſaying, that M. de Broglio is making his Retreat to Frankfort.

The Hereditary Prince is at Schlitz. A Courier, who came from his Quarters the 23d, ſaid, it was reported there, that our Huſſars had taken Poſſeſſion of Fulda the Night before. This was confirmed the 24th, with the agreeable Intelligence, that the Enemy had left a very great Magazine of Flour and Oats untouched, and had only burnt their Magazine of Hay. General Luckner took 300 Priſoners in Fulda, and the neighbouring Villages, in moſt of which we have taken ſome Forage. In this reſpect we have been extremely fortunate, having found in all our Cantonments hitherto, ſince we paſſed the Eder, enough for our Subſiſtence. To-morrow we ſhall proceed on our March to Alſfeldt.

The Army of the Empire, which was in the Neighbourhood of Gotha, when Gen. Sporcken attacked the Enemy at Langen Saltz, retired precipitately, and is ſuppoſed to have taken the Road to Bamberg. The Pruſſian Corps, which acted in Conjunction with General Sporcken, and which took three of the five Saxon Battalions, will check them in their Attempts to advance farther. A very large Magazine has been found at Eyſenach.

Hanover, March 3. Major Scheither hath taken the Caſtle of Battenberg by Aſſault, and made Priſoners one Lieutenant-Colonel, one Captain, four Officers, and 250 Swiſs, with ten Huſſars: He alſo took four Cannon.

Port L'Orient, Feb. 20. By the Berrier Eaſt Indiaman, arrived from the Iſle of Bourbon, we have received Advice, that Pondicherry was vigorouſly preſſed by the Engliſh in the Month of June laſt, and that there was no Likelihood of their raiſing the Siege; from whence it is plain, that the Report of their having abandoned that Place in April, was without Foundation.

Brandenbourg, March 7. Conſiderable Augmentations are ſtill making in our Troops. The King has ordered four new Corps, called Legions, to be formed. The firſt, under the Command of Col. Quintus Icilius, and the ſecond, called the Brandenbourg Legion, will conſiſt of 6500 Men each. The third, named the Green Legion, is to be 3000 Men. We are actually raiſing the fourth, which is to be called the Foreign Royal Legion.

Frankfort, March 11. The firſt Diviſion of the Troops from the Lower Rhine, conſiſting of 6000 Men, reached the ſtrong Camp of Bergen the 8th Inſtant, the 2d and 3d Diviſions, each of 4000 Men, arrived there the 9th and 10th. The French Troops collected in our Neighbourhood may amount to near 40,000 Men.

The Allied Army is falling back, not chuſing to riſk a Battle with ſo many Places behind them. They ſeem determined to take Ziegenhayn, where there is a good Garriſon, and a large Quantity of Ammunition. The Trenches before that Place were opened on the 9th.

Hague, March 13. No Letters have been received here from Prince Ferdinand's Quarters ſince the 4th; but we have an Account from thoſe Parts, that the allied Army continued encamped in two Lines, with the Right to the Labne, and the Left extended towards Fulda: That the Siege of Ziegenhayn ſtill continued: That the Town of Marpurg had been abandoned by the French upon Lord Granby's approach; and the Caſtle thereof, in which they had left a Garriſon, would ſoon be attacked. General Hardenberg had taken poſt at Statbergen.

The Accounts from the French Quarters of the 8th Inſtant mention, that the Corps under General Kilmanſegge, which had advanced towards Freyberg, and another under Marſhal Broglio in Perſon, were on the 6th in Sight of each other, but that nothing had paſſed, except ſkirmiſhing between the light Troops; that the French continued fortifying themſelves at Hanau, Vilbel and Bergen, and expected ſome Reinforcements from the Lower Rhine to join them in a few Days. The ſame Advices add, that General Luckner had taken Poſſeſſion of Aſchaffenbourg, and had, on the 7th in the Night, thrown a Bridge over the Mayne at Seligenſtadt.

Frankfort, March 14. The Allies continue to draw back. The Corps under the Hereditary Prince is retired from Bodingen, by the Way of Gedern and Vogelberg, to the Neighbourhood of Amenebourg. Gen. Luckner is falling back by the Way of Blanckenaw and Herbſtein, towards Weteravia. As the Allies retire, the French advance. Marſhal Broglio's Head-quarters were removed Yeſterday from Friedberg to Batzbach.

Frankfort, March 25. Our Advices from the Allied Army import that the Allies had given over the Siege of Ziegenhayn, and that the French were continuing their Diſpoſitions to march forward. General Quaſco, with 800 Men, is at Fulda. We alſo learn that Lieut. Gen. Hardenberg, with the Troops under his Command, is gone from the Neighbourhood of Dolmen, by Munſter and Hamm, towards Stadberg.

Hanover, March 23. We are informed, that the Count de la Lippe-Buckebourg, who commands before Caſſel, hath ſent an Expreſs to Zell to acquaint the Landgraviate of Heſſe, that he expected that the Breach made in the Ramparts of Caſſel would be practicable by the 25th or 26th, and that he hoped to be Maſter of the Place by Aſſault, without damaging the Houſes by a Bombardment.

Genoa, February 28. It is reported, that the Corſican Malecontents have taken San Fiorenzo, Sword in Hand.

Hague, March 17. The Letters from the Army under Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, of the 8th Inſtant inform us, that his Serene Highneſs's Quarters continued at Schwainſberg. We have received by them, a Confirmation of the News of the Sally that was made on the 7th Inſtant by the Garriſon at Caſſel; in which the French took Poſſeſſion of the Trenches, and carried off four Mortars, and nailed up ten Piece of Cannon, and deſtroyed the Works of the grand Battery. But Count La Lippe, at the Head of the Heſſian Guards, and Waugenheim Grenadiers, drove them back into the Town.

Our laſt Accounts from the French Army of the 21th Inſtant mention, that Marſhal Broglio had moved his Head-Quarters from Bergen to Friedberg; and that the Reinforcement expected by him from the Lower Rhine, was preparing upon the Meyne.

By Letters of the 11th from Leipzig, every Thing was quiet in thoſe Parts. The King of Pruſſia, it was expected, would ſoon viſit the Poſts of Chemnitz and Freyberg, and afterwards fix his Quarters at Meiſſen. General Sibourg, with the Corps under his Command, was returned to his Quarters of Cantonment.

LONDON, March 21.

Extract of a Letter from Turin, February 3.

"It is confidently reported, that an Alliance is concluded between our Court, and thoſe of London, Madrid, and Naples, for bringing a powerful Army into the Field next Spring in Italy. Thoſe four Powers are to aſſiſt each other to make a Conqueſt of Lombardy, Tuſcany, and Final, and a Part of the Dutchy of Mantua. The Infant Don Philip is to have Lombardy; Don Lewis, Tuſcany; the King of Sardinia, the Parmeſan and Final. The Catholic King is to ſend an Army of 50,000 into Italy, which will be joined by 40,000 effective Men of our King's Forces, to act as Occaſion may require.

"We are further informed, that 8000 Bavarians are to be taken into the Service of our Monarch, but that they are to be paid by England, from whom his Majeſty is likewiſe to receive a conſiderable Subſidy. Our Accounts from Genoa mention, that the Republic is not a little uneaſy about what may happen in Italy, being apprehenſive of loſing both Final and Corſica."

March 14. The Embarkation of the Troops for Germany will commence between the 16th and 20th Inſt. Some General Officers, who have not been abroad this War, with ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction as Volunteers, will accompany them.

'Tis confidently reported that a Suſpenſion of Hoſtilities is agreed on between the Courts of Ruſſia and Pruſſia, till a Negociation for a Peace is ſet on Foot between the ſeveral Powers concerned.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, March 12.

"We expect in here daily, Whitmore's and Erſkine's Regiments, for our Expedition. Our vaſt Preparations begin now to take Place.

"At Spithead, the Admirals Hawke, Hardy, and Geary, with 35 Ships of War."

Major General Erſkine's Regiment of Foot is on it's March for Portſmouth, and is ſaid to be deſtined for the Expedition.

A Tranſport Ship is arrived at Falmouth from Cork, with 300 Soldiers; the Captain ſays, that another Tranſport with the ſame Number of Troops on board for the ſaid Place, was taken a few Days ago by two French Frigates, who were cruiſing ſeventeen Leagues to the Weſtward of Scilly.

The Province of Virginia has appointed Edward Montague, Eſq; their Agent, with a Salary of 500 l. Sterling.

March 19. By ſome Letters from Madrid, there is an Account, that the Earl of Briſtol, the Britiſh Ambaſſador, had, at an Audience of his Catholic Majeſty, been aſſured, that he remain'd firm in his Reſolution to maintain the preſent Treaties ſubſiſting between the Courts of Great-Britain and Spain.

The Battalion now lying in the Tower has received Orders to be ready to march at a few Hours Notice for Portſmouth, where they are to embark.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, March 20.

"The Empreſs Queen is determined to riſk another Campaign before ſhe will liſten to any Terms of Peace. The Czarina being informed that ſome Steps had been taken for accommodating Matters between France and England, under the Mediation of Spain, hath ordered her Miniſter at Vienna to deſire the Empreſs Queen, to give herſelf no Uneaſineſs about that Negotiation; That their own Forces were more than ſufficient to crush the King of Pruſſia, without ſtanding even the 24,000 Men which France is obliged by Treaty to furniſh to the Houſe of Auſtria."

We hear the Earl of Bute is appointed one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the Room of Lord Holdernesse.

We are informed that Lady Bute will, in a few Days, be created a Countess, by the Title of Wortley Montague.

The Earl of Bute took his Place last Night as Secretary of State in the Room of Lord Holdernesse, made Groom of the Stole.

Yesterday Nelborne Barkley, Esq; General Cornwallis, George Pitt, Esq; and Edward Northey, Esq; kissed the King's Hand on being appointed Grooms of the Bedchamber to his Majesty.

His Majesty's Ship Launceston and Alderney, at Portsmouth, are to sail to Madeira, in Order to save Time in receiving Wines for the Expedition Fleet, which joins them at that Place.

The Bay of Quiberon is now evacuated by the English, and the Fleet disposed of in the following Manner. All the Three-deckers are come home, with some others of less Force; a small flying Squadron cruizes off Brest; and some single Ships are sent to the Westward.

Josiah Hardy, Esq; Brother to Sir Charles Hardy, Rear Admiral of the Blue, an eminent Merchant of this City, is appointed Governor of New-Jersey.

March 21. This Day arrived a Mail from Holland, with Letters from Germany of the 11th Instant, which advise that the Allies had marched back, and that Prince Ferdinand's Head-quarters were at Schiffenberg, and those of the Hereditary Prince at Nidda.

There are Letters from Germany which speak of an Insurrection in Hungary, occasioned by some Austrian Officers taking Hungarians by force to recruit their Troops. Several Detachments of Horse and Foot have, it is said, marched from Vienna to Buda on this Occasion.

From Poland a Report is sent, that some Russian Horse and Foot had been sent to Courland, to suppress a Rebellion in that Dutchy.

This Day the Honourable Charles Townshend took his Seat as Secretary at War.

March 24. On Saturday Orders were issued at the War-Office, for all Officers that are going on the Expedition, to repair immediately to Portsmouth.

It is said all the Regiments in England have Orders to hold themselves in Readiness to march on the first Notice.

Extract of a Letter from Rotterdam, March 17.

"This Day's French Letters bring an Account of an English homeward bound Indiaman being taken and carried into Brest, called the Ajax, from Bengal and Madrass, loaden with 4000 Bags of Saltpetre, 500 Bales of Bengals, and 300 Ditto Mouchoirs de Madrass (Handkerchiefs) and one Chest of Diamonds, besides many other Products of the Ports she came from. A King's Frigate took her, viz. the Prothee, Capt. Cornei. The Indiaman mounted 26 Carriage Guns, and 100 Men, Burthen 750 Tons. She is a new Ship, being her first Voyage, and was commanded by Capt. Lindsay."

The following Gentlemen are created Knights of the Bath:

Lord Carysfort, late Knight of the Shire for Huntingdonshire.

Lieutenant-General Yorke, his Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at the Hague.

Sir James Gray, Bart. Envoy at Naples.

Major-General Amherst.

Major-General John Griffin Griffin, Colonel of the 33d Regiment of Foot, and late Member for Andover.

George Pocock, Esq; Admiral of the Blue Squadron.

Sir William Beauchamp Proctor, Bart. late Knight of the Shire for Middlesex.

Sir John Gibbons, Bart. late Member for Stockbridge.

Francis Blake Delaval, Member for Andover.

Charles Frederick, Esq; Surveyor General of the Ordnance, Comptroller of his Majesty's Laboratory at Woolwich, and late Member for Queenborough.

George Warren, Esq; late Member for Lancaster.

It is reported that Capt. Lindsay, of the Ajax East-Indiaman, was killed in the Action when his Ship was taken; which is said to be worth 200,000l.

The Denham East-Indiaman, that sailed from Bengal before the Ajax, is apprehended to be taken or lost; and Yesterday 50 l. per Cent. Insurance was made upon her.

The Molly, Hunter, from North-America for Ireland, with Flax Seed and Sugar, is taken by a Bayonne Privateer of 16 Guns, and carried into some Port in Spain.

Letters from Paris pretend, that the Ministry had received Advice of a considerable Advantage gained over the English in India. The same Letters add, that as Martinico was still threatened to be attacked, the Governor insisted warmly on the sending him a Reinforcement, and promised to keep the Place provided they would let him have some Ships of War, and between two and three Thousand Land Forces, with some Stores, particularly Gunpowder, of which he is in great Want.

These Letters, which are dated the 16th, farther say, "We begin to make ourselves easy about Marshal Broglio, since he received the greatest Part of his Reinforcements. The last Letters from his Army advise, that Prince Ferdinand hath fallen back chiefly to draw Marshal Broglio out of his advantageous Position, and bring on a general Engagement, which the Prince will be obliged to risk, in order to procure Provisions and Forage for his Troops. It is even said, that he would have attacked our Army before now, if the Badness of the Roads had not hindered the bringing up of his Cannon."

Marshal Daun is to set out for the Army on the 16th Instant.

Father Charlevoix, a Jesuit, well known to the Republic of Letters, died lately at the College of La Fleche, in a very advanced Age.

Letter from a Gentleman at Hexham, Northumberland, Monday Night, March 9.

"The Deputy-Lieutenants and Justices met this Day about the Militia; and as many of the Fellows, who lately made the Disturbances at Newcastle, threatened to be here, four Companies of the Yorkshire Militia came to Town last Night. This Morning Thousands of the Rioters came into Town in the most desperate Manner. The Cryer went about by Order of the Justices, to desire all the Inhabitants to keep within Doors; for in case any Person behaved in a Riotous Manner, the Militia should be ordered to fire upon them.

"About ten, the Gentlemen went to the Moot-hall, and the Militia were drawn up before the Gate to prevent any of the Mob going into the Hall. At the same Time the Major told them all their Complaints should be heard, if they would but be quiet and peaceable. They accordingly remained pretty orderly, till a large Body of Pit-men, between two and three Hundred, came into Town about twelve o'Clock, who attempted to break through the Militia to get to the Hall. Upon which the Militia received orders to fire. Think what a shocking Sound! for near ten Minutes Fellow-Subjects firing upon one another, and what a horrible Scene was beheld afterwards: Some carried away dead in Carts, others, on Horses. Many were led along just dying of their Wounds, and all covered with Blood! Shocking Spectacles! and then to hear the dreadful Shrieks of the Women, whose Husbands or Sons were among the Rioters, was enough to pierce a Heart of Stone. One poor Creature, whose Husband had been carried by dead a little before, came by screaming in such a Manner, that we heard her as far as the Abbey-gate. His Name was Daniel Bowman, a labouring Man, and a very inoffensive one, but would go out to see what was going forward; he has left seven Children. A poor Woman, a Widow with eight Children, and big with another (one Carter) going into the Market to look after her Son, was shot Dead, and her Son shot thro' the Thigh, and they say cannot live. A Woman who was come from Newcastle for a few Days to see a Relation, and was with Child, was shot through the Belly as she was standing at a Window. Besides these I have mentioned, there are several ill who came from Brittley, some from Gungerton, Acton, Wall, and some from the Shire. Twenty wounded were carried to one House, 8 of whom are now dead, and it is feared not above 2 or 3 of the others will survive. There are sixteen also now lying dead in the Church to be owned, most of whom are Pitmen, who have been the Cause of all this horrid Slaughter. Many have been found dead upon the Road, who had been wounded, and were making their Escape. Among the Militia there it only one Grenadier killed, besides those I mentioned. They reckon in all above 100 killed and wounded: But I am afraid the Number will be greater by and by, for they are continually finding more who had run away wounded, and died by themselves in the Holes where they lived."

By an exact Account received of the late Riot at Hexham, it appears that 45 of the Rioters were killed, and 300 wounded, some of them mortally.

St. James's, March 20. The King in Council was this Day pleased to declare the Right Hon. George Dunk Earl of Halifax, Lieut. General, and General Governor of his Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland.

This Day the Right Hon. Sir Francis Dashwood, Bart. Treasurer of his Majesty's Chamber, was, by his Majesty's Command, sworn of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

Last Friday his Majesty in Council was pleased to order the Lord Chancellor to cause Writs to be forthwith issued, for electing Members for the Convocation of the Clergy.

Whitehall, March 21. The King has been pleased to grant unto Lord Talbot, and his Heirs Male, the Dignity of an Earl of Great-Britain, by the Title of Earl Talbot. And,

Lord De La Warr, and his Heirs Male, the Dignity of a Viscount and Earl of Great-Britain, by the Title of Viscount Cantalupe, and Earl De La Warr.

The King has been pleased to appoint his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Lord Barrington, Lord North, James Oswald, and Gilbert Elliot, Esquires, Lords of the Treasury.

Lord Barrington, Chancellor and Under-Treasurer of the Exchequer.

Lord Anson, Dr. Hay, Thomas Ormby Hunter, John Forbes, and Hans Stanley, Esquires; Lord Villiers, and Thomas Pelham, Esq; Lords of the Admiralty.

Dr. Hay, Advocate General.

The Lord Chancellor, and several other Ministers of State now and for the Time being, and also Lord Sandys, Andrew Stone, Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliot, and Edward Bacon, Esqrs. together with John York, Esq; Sir Edmund Thomas, Bart. and George Rice, Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

Whitehall, March 21. His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Hon. William Pitt, Esq; to be one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Oath of Secretary of State was this Day by his Majesty's Command, administered to him in Council.

The Writs for calling a new Parliament bore Test on Saturday the 21st Instant, and to be returnable on Tuesday the 19th of May next.

NEW-YORK, May 18.

On Thursday last arrived here, the Earl of Halifax Packet-Boat, Captain Boulderson, in 6 Weeks and 4 Days from Falmouth. He was twice chaced on the Passage by French Vessels, but outsail'd them. By him we hear that the General Wall Packet, Capt. Lutwidge, who sail'd from hence the 4th of March, was, about 150 Leagues to the W. of the Lizard, after a smart Engagement of 3 Hours and a Half, taken by a French Privateer Frigate of 24 Guns, 6 and 9 Pounders. Capt. Lutwidge ransomed the Vessel for about 600l. Sterling, and she arrived at Falmouth 5 Days after, in 21 Days from New-York. But Captain Lutwidge did not live to re-visit his native Country, for having in the Engagement, received a mortal Wound in the Hip, by a Cannon Ball, he died 40 Hours after, before the Ship's Arrival at Falmouth. He has left in this Town, a Widow and two Children, to lament the Loss of a kind Husband and Parent, and his Country, of a worthy Man; but all his Acquaintance have the Pleasure to know that he died like an Englishman.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated March 15.

"There are within these 24 Hours great Changes at Court; it is said many will kiss the King's Hand next Monday; the Chief are as follows, Lord Bute to be Secretary of State, in the Room of Lord Holdernesse; Lord Halifax to be Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; and Lord Sandi, to be first Lord of the Board of Trade; Lord Barrington, to be Chancellor of the Exchequer; Mr. Charles Townshend to be Secretary of War: Several Peers to be promoted in their Titles, and many to be advanced in the Treasury and Navy; Gen. Moncton, to be Governor of New-York, Mr. Hardy (Brother to Sir Charles) Governor of New-Jersey, Mr. Boone Governor of South-Carolina, and some other Governments to be filled up, &c.

Extract of a Letter from London, March 14, 1761.

"Our Parliament will rise and be dissolved the 19th Instant, and the New be immediately formed, what Sort it will be, a very little Time will prove; and indeed the Disposition with regard to Peace or War will shew itself. At present Opinions about the one or the other are various as ever; one Day we see Peace near, the next it's vanished, and all the while the most vigorous Measures are pursued in Planning a warm Campaign in Germany and Expeditions elsewhere, by our Naval Force, but their Destination a profound Secret. The King of Prussia you will find is rising in greater Glory then ever, he has since his late Victory, sent 15,000 Troops to assist Prince Ferdinand, who by a Master-stroke of Generalship (beyond any Thing Turene ever did) has dispersed the French Army under Broglio, tho' almost double his Number and Cantoned to all Advantage, he is now pursuing them as fast as he can, but they surpass his Swiftness in their Flight out of Hess, what the Event will be we are daily expecting to hear, 'tis said that the Czarina seems inclin'd to withdraw her Assistance from the Austrians, and that Spain and Sardinia have designed to Attack her in Italy, these last are probably no more at present than the Coffee House Conjectures, and yet if the War continues may be brought about."

Captain Scull, in a Letter of Marque Sloop, belonging to Philadelphia, took lately off Conecta, a French Brig loaded with 104 Hogsheads of white Sugar, 5000 lb. of Indigo, and several other valuable Effects: The Vessel was bound to Old-France, but sprung her Foremast in the Latitude of Bermuda, and was putting back to refit.

The following French Privateers have lately been taken by our English Cruizers, and are carried into England, viz.

The Auguste of St. Maloes, of 10 Guns and 70 Men, by the Frigate Vengeance.

The L'Annemame and Sardoine, two King's Frigates, carrying 14 Guns each, armed by the Merchants, and designed for the Coast of Guinea.

The Zephyr of 12 Guns, and 140 Men by the Aquilon, Capt. Ogle. The Marshal Broglio Privateer of Morlaix, by the Unicorn. A Privateer of 10 Guns, and 140 Men, by the Jersey, in the Streights. The Le Luten of 8 Guns, and 70 Men, of Cherburgh, by the Alarm. The St. Joseph and St. Antoine, of 12 Guns, and 85 Men.

A Letter from Barbados, dated April 10, 1761.

ON Tuesday the 31st of March, about half an Hour after Four, P. M. being near Low Water, the Sea suddenly retired from the Shore, and in about Three Minutes it returned again, to the Height of near Four Feet. This Flux and Reflux, abated about Eight; but about Ten it increased again, for some short Time; then decreased, 'till Six the next Morning.

The Flux and Reflux was not always regular; after the first Three Hours it was sometimes performed in Three Minutes, and at other Times in not less than Six.

On November 1st, 1755, the very Day the Earthquake happened at Lisbon, there was then here in this same Manner, an Agitation of the Water; so that, we have Room to fear, there has now been another ——GOD knows where!

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.

Yesterday arrived here the Ship Joseph & Nancy, Captain Taylor, from Belfast, which he left the 13th ult. By him we have Irish Papers to the 7th of April, which contain Advices from London to the 28th of March, the Purport of which is as follows: That on the 27th of that Month, the Embarkation on board the Grand Expedition Fleet ended, and it was thought would sail the next Day, as positive Orders had been given for Sailing the first fair Wind: That the Allies still carried on the Sieges of Ziegenhayn and Cassel, which, it was thought, would soon capitulate: That a War in Italy was expected; and that his Sardinian Majesty would open the Campaign with 50,000 Men: That the Swedish Court had resolved to raise no more Men for the War: And that the King of Prussia would quickly begin his Operations with the Siege of Dresden.

The 31st of March, there was at Madeira a Shock of an Earthquake, on the North-East Part of the Island, which did some Damage.

In the Papers there is an Account, that on the 28th of March died that Great, Learned and Pious Divine, the Rev. Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD.

ANNAPOLIS, May 28.

Sunday laſt arrived here, from London, the Ship Neptune, Captain Benjamin Dawſon, who left Spithead the 30th of March.

Capt. Dawſon informs us, that the Day before he left Spithead, the Grand Expedition Fleet ſailed; but where they were bound remain'd a Secret. There were 14 Sail of the Line, 20 Frigates, Bombs, &c. and about 200 Sail of Tranſports, with 10,000 Land Forces. Commodore Keppel had the Command of the Fleet; and the Troops were under the Command of General Hodgſon.

Capt. John Johnſton, in the Ship Sally, came in with Capt. Dawſon, and is arrived in Patowmack.

By Letters from London, we are informed, that Capt. Craymer, of the Thetis, from Patapſco, was attacked in her Paſſage home by a Privateer of 20 Guns, whom, after a ſharp Engagement, he obliged to ſheer off: But had hardly got out of ſight from her, before a Frigate came up, and obliged him to ſtrike. The Thetis had only 4 Guns, and 15 Men.
